

GULF COAST CITIZEN DIPLOMACY COUNCIL BOARD OF DIRECTORS RESPONSIBILITIES

The Board of Directors of the Gulf Coast Citizen Diplomacy Council is composed of individuals from the community of northwest Florida who are committed to the goals of the council and who work to promote the programs and initiatives of the organization. Board members have primary responsibility for the organization's financial viability and policies and are willing to contribute skill, experience, perspective, wisdom, and time to the organization. Each member should be aware of the following obligations:

Financial Responsibilities:

- Be a member in good standing of the GCCDC, which includes paying annual dues and actively participating in annual fundraising events and contributing a $60 donation to the GCCDC for events. To ensure diversity on the board, minimum dues for 2018 are $40 but Minister & Ambassador Level dues are encouraged.

Participatory Responsibilities:

- Commit to a full three-year term of office
- Attend quarterly Board meetings; Board meetings are held in February, May, August, and November; Attend monthly committee meetings as needed
- Be able to participate and/or host or co-host a minimum of one international visitor each year to dinner
- Serve as an ambassador to the community and promote the organization, both professionally and personally
- Cultivate potential Board members whose participation on the Board reflects the diversity of the community
- Attract at least one new member to the Council per year; Support our cultural & social events & encourage others to do so.
