Gulf Coast Diplomacy

Moving Northwest Florida from local to global through international exchange and education

Since 1940, participants of the United States Department of State International Visitor Leadership Program (IVLP) have come to the U.S. from all over the world to meet with their professional counterparts and to experience the nation firsthand. The emphasis of the IVLP is to increase mutual understanding through communication at the personal and professional levels.

Delegates are up-and-coming leaders in a variety of fields including business, government, education, journalism, and the arts. Over 500 IVLP alumni are current or former Heads of Government or Chiefs of State and include President Anwar Sadat of Egypt, President Nicolas Sarkozy of France, Prime Minister Indira Gandhi of India, and Prime Ministers Gordon Brown, Tony Blair, and Margaret Thatcher of the United Kingdom.

Gulf Coast Diplomacy brings IVLP delegates to Northwest Florida so our region can participate in this important program.

About Us

Citizen Diplomacy is the idea that individual citizens have the right & responsibility to help shape U.S. foreign relations.

The IVLP Benefits the Community by:

- Promoting the area as a center of commerce, culture, and tourism
- Presenting opportunities for businesses and universities to create new ties with foreign counterparts and to strengthen existing ones
- Educating local teens through our Youth Diplomats Program
- Offering extra hands to volunteer organizations; A word for “volunteerism” does not exist in some languages, an important part of many IVLP projects is for delegates to spend time volunteering.
- Having delegates available for presentations to students & professionals

Members of the Council Benefit by:

- Learning about other cultures & exchanging ideas with foreign counterparts
- Knowing their service helps the U.S. government meet its foreign policy goals
- Meeting tomorrow’s world leaders today
