About Us

Gulf Coast Diplomacy is a non-partisan, non-profit organization facilitating and strengthening connection, collaboration, and fellowship between the people of the Gulf Coast and the global community.

As part of the Global Ties U.S. national network of organizations focusing on international exchange, we achieve our mission through three program pillars:

- International Exchange and Citizen Diplomacy
- Education
- Hospitality

Since 1940, participants of the U.S. Department of State International Visitor Leadership Program (IVLP) have come to the U.S. from all over the world to meet with their professional counterparts and to experience the nation firsthand. The emphasis of the IVLP is to increase mutual understanding through communication at the personal and professional levels.

Delegates are up-and-coming leaders in a variety of fields including business, government, education, journalism, and the arts. Over 500 IVLP alumni are current or former Heads of Government or Chiefs of State and include President Anwar Sadat of Egypt, Prime Minister Indira Gandhi of India, and Prime Minister Margaret Thatcher of the U.K. Gulf Coast Diplomacy manages IVLP exchanges in NW Florida so our region can participate in this important program.

Citizen Diplomacy

is the idea that every individual has the right to help shape U.S. foreign relations one connection at a time.

Community Impact & Benefits

Our programs

- Increase trust, respect, and understanding between local residents and people from throughout the world;
- Enable access to expertise from the global community to address local issues and challenges;
- Advance learning and educational goals for both youth and adults;
- Support career preparation and workforce development by providing opportunities to work in and understand the global economy;
- Support the cultural and hospitality economy of the Gulf Coast; and
- Support U.S. foreign policy and national security goals through citizen diplomacy.
