

Voices of Tomorrow: Youth Leadership in America

Why Pensacola?

International visitors have the unique opportunity to engage directly with young American leaders through our Youth Diplomats program, which meets once a month from August through April.

Youth Diplomats

We are happy to arrange roundtable discussions, community service activities, and leadership workshops for upcoming IVLP groups to engage with these high school leaders from Northwest Florida.

Faces of Service Presentation

Youth Diplomats can present their work on the Faces of Service initiative, which highlights the strength of the American spirit through the untold stories of servant leaders in Northwest Florida. This initiative was done in collaboration with the National Museum and Center for Service and includes a physical and virtual exhibition.

Let's collaborate!

Outlined below are the upcoming meeting dates for our Youth Diplomats program. Let us know in advance if you'd like to send an IVLP group that overlaps with the following dates to coordinate an interactive session.
